

At the same time I was seeing the things in my life that were painful. There were other things but somehow the things that were painful made the biggest impact and I knew that I did not want to go through that again. There is no way to escape that if you try to kill yourself and you succeed, then somehow you will have to go back and live your life from the beginning and you will have to go from the point where you killed yourself also, so you are not escaping." (Link: Life After Life | Documentary Heaven) Sandy was allowed to come back and to tell us.

In Other Words:

Life is like going to school with its lessons and we just have to learn them, there is no copping out, or we have to do it all over again until we learn. Hence every time the quitting thought comes to mind I pray for help and slam that door shut, because I know if leave the door open there is the distinct possibility that I'll go through it one day.

The Schizophrenia of Modern Education

In secular education we are made to believe that we came from nowhere and are going nowhere. We are a particular species of herd animals. This world is all there is! We are alone. Faith in God is "out-dated" and mentioning Jesus is not "politically correct". Yet, on the other hand we are taught about Nobel Quantum Physicists like: Einstein, Heisenberg, Max Planck, and geniuses like Newton, Michelangelo, Galileo, etc. All great minds with a strong faith in God.

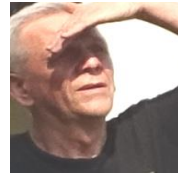

Why is Suicide Predominant Nowadays?

One main reason is that we are taught "have faith in yourself!" However none of us are strong enough to withstand the negative spiritual forces that are released via the media in TV, movies, the Net and the virtual reality shoot-them-up and even suicide challenges. As the lines between virtual and actual reality are blurring, we see people commit suicide or mass shootings.

Is there life after death or a heaven and hell?

Is there life beyond the grave? If we research the subject, we discover that millions of people had a Near Death Experience or NDE.

They were declared clinically dead and revived later. Most tell a similar story that they separated from their body, they went through a tunnel, they saw a 'Being of Light' and heaven which they reported is full of light and love; many saw old friends and loved ones and they didn't want to leave.

So then I can do what I want, if it all Honkey-Dory?

No, it is not, as it is dependent on the decisions we make in this life. On the contrary there are different spheres of blackness and loneliness.

"Leave me alone, just leave me alone. Okay?!"

Okay, alone, just you. Be careful what you wish for.

Edgar Casey wrote the following:

"After death, we may enter a region that is void of love, life, and light, void of everything. For some, this region is approximately their wish come true. Here they are truly alone with themselves.

For some souls, this is a pain that is unbearable. In the absence of truth, love, gentleness, and kindness, some souls fill the void with an irrational and unbelievable amount of pain and fear. It is so dark in the realm of outer darkness that the darkness hurts and panic grips them without knowing why."

Does Hell Exist?

Then there is "hell, with fire that never shall be quenched." (Mark 9:43).

On earth our fires of wounded pride are usually quenched by others or the police or we end up in prison to cool down. We take matters in our own hand and refuse to look to God, as we think that God is incapable of doing anything about it.

In our next life we go to a place where all of us, who feel mistreated, can fight each other without our fire being quenched. The saying "This just burns me up" will then be actual flames in the abyss of violence, screaming torture and fire, until the time that we repent and ask God to make us a new, loving and forgiving person, instead of eternally hating and getting even.

Q: God, if you exist I'd like to ask you a thing or two:

A: "Go ahead I have been asked before."

Q: "Do you know what it's like:

- To be a child growing up as a refugee fleeing from insane killings?
- To go without food for more than a month?
- To be a rough-sleeper and be homeless?
- To be different and people spit and punch you in the face?
- To have real pain like the black slave who was whipped mercilessly?
- To be a freedom fighter; betrayed by a close friend to the occupiers, who crucify you naked to make you a public example?
- To be framed for one of the cruellest, six hour long agonizing death sentences, while you are innocent and only spoke the truth?

A: "I gave my Son, who was my embodiment in human form and he literally went through all this to manifest my true character.

As the soldiers were pounding the nails through his hands and feet, he said, "Father, forgive them for they don't know what they do." (Luke 23:34) We still forgive.

He also said, "I came not to call the good people to repentance, but I came for sinners." (Matthew 9:13)

He was known as 'a friend of sinners'.

Honest sinners like you, who know they need our help to change. His life for yours, to show how much we value you, no matter how low you've fallen."

It was the Innocent for the guilty.

But even death could not keep Jesus down. His jaw-dropping resurrection was three days later to show us that there is life beyond death and that we cannot end our life with suicide, because it won't end.

The Ultimate Question

If you feel that you're living in hell already then come to Jesus. He said, "Whoever comes to me, I will in no wise cast out." (John 6:37)

God gave you life; why not give it back to him? Jesus gave his life; will you give him your heart?

Life will still be life with its difficulties, but he will give you the inner strength to start seeing difficulties as challenges, instead of insurmountable depressing obstacles. You've tried everything else why not try Jesus, and your life will become worth living.

A prayer: (Don't worry you are not losing your mind.)

"Dear Jesus, I give my life back to you. Please cleanse from the negative powers that try to control me. I turn my miserable life over to you to see if you can do anything with it. Thank you; it's yours."

Jesus was not a Christian

Nor did he come to start a new religion called Christianity. He came to lift us high above the divisions of religion to connect us to our Creator to Love itself. He is the core essence of every major religion. Like I said "You've tried all else, why not this."

Study His Life to Steady Ours.

Steve Jobs (late Apple CEO) said:

"Maybe it's because I want to believe in an afterlife, that when you die, it doesn't just all disappear. The wisdom you've accumulated, somehow it lives on, but sometimes I think it's just like an on-off switch. Click and you're gone. And that's why I don't like putting on-off switches on Apple devices." (link: www.thewire.com/technology/2011/10/)

Steve was blessed for that statement, because as he died, he departed from this world with a sense of wonder, saying, "Oh wow. Oh wow. Oh wow." (link: <http://www.msn.com/en-gb/news/world/last-words-of-famous-people>)

God will not just flip the switch on us and we will have to face the music for our deeds and choices, whether we like it or not. Hence it's best to reconcile with God through Jesus. He took the punishment for you and me to save us from the "Guilty" verdict.

Is Suicide a Way Out?

The late actor Robin Williams, who took his life on August 11th 2014, said, "Suicide is a permanent solution to a temporary problem."

1951 - 2014

But is it?

What About Suicide?

The following was told by Sandy Rogers who could not handle life anymore because of the difficulties and pain she faced. One day she took her pistol and shot herself in the heart.

She committed suicide.

However, she encountered an interesting turn of events after she had left her physical body. Sandy says: "I was told, 'you can stay here or go back. If you stay, you are going to have to go through everything that brought you to this point'.
