

And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. (Luke 5:16)

But you, when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father which is in secret; (Matthew 6:6)

For us as believers the Lord uses 'the parable of the Sower' to describe the condition of our heart. (Matthew 13:3-9 & 18-23) May we pray that the prayers of our heart are seeds that fall in good ground so that they will bring forth fruit.

It might help to set our alarm for a certain time(s) of the day to remind us to stop and pray. We should start our time with the Lord to thank him for three things that we are thankful for that day.

Our Daily Prayer-assignments for this week (24-29 June, 2024) besides praying for our offspring:

'Please give us this day (especially those who have none) our daily bread', as they are also somebody's offspring. "Dear Jesus, you said 'ask and you shall receive' (Mat.7:7,8); Lord, we do not ask to receive for ourselves, but for those who have nothing, that you show yourself strong on behalf of the poor."

These are the personal prayer requests that were received:

Mrs. Sorensen: I would like prayer for a cough to go away. I've had it for a long time and I have trouble going to sleep because of it. Also, I need prayer for healing of all allergies. Thank you.

Mr. Michael asks for prayer for: Friends, especially the elderly, the sick, the confused, neighbours, former work colleagues.

It might help to divide the names of your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren over the 6 days from Monday to Saturday and pray for different one(s) each day.

See you next Monday for the new weekly Prayer assignments at www.johanpeters.in

If you know of any older folks that are not online; please be so kind as to print this and hand it to them. Thank you so very much.
