

Believe me, Satan challenged the wrong opponent.

A quick review for us; first the abomination will be obliterated, then we overpower the Antichrist and with him the False Prophet... Both these will be cast alive into a lake of fire burning with sulphur.

The armies will then be leaderless, and that is when the soldiers will turn against each other and the slaughter starts. There is not much we can do there, seeing that the Father is extremely effective. As we descend the musicians will start to play, when I give the signal. At that time the earth will shake and the Father himself will fight as in the days of old.

It is of the utmost importance that you keep rank.

We will not go down to the valley of Megiddo where the battle takes place, but we will go to the Mount of Olives, which is east of Jerusalem. As we descend there will be a tremendous earthquake that will split the mount in two.

The first thing is to destroy the abomination and get it out of the temple. It will again be temple cleansing time, which is one of my favourite activities.

We will enter through the Eastern Gate. Although this has been walled up for centuries, the Father will see to it that the obstructing wall crumbles to dust during the earthquake. And we'll fulfil the scripture, 'The LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east... I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile.' From there you will proceed to your assigned area as explained earlier in the meeting."

On the third day the Lord returned and took his place at the head of the army. He looked so handsome, beautiful and strong. Here he was the Word of God; his robe was dipped in blood, to identify with all those who suffered in persecution. On his robe and thigh was the superb embroidery, 'KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.'

We were standing in formation; the Lord raised his hand; his hand came down; the heavens opened; the musicians played and as we descended we saw the earth shake.

We sang with the musicians Psalm Two: "Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed... Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure..."

'And as they began to sing and praise... the armies began to utterly slay and destroy each other'

'Shmuel now you have heard my story', says Rachel 'but you were on the earth. How was it for you?'

"Mum, as I told you when I got my draft letter I split to Jordan. I met some amazing people and Ahmed became my close friend. You had told me about the last seven years, and only 3½ years were left, so I wanted to see if this was true or not. Towards the end we stayed in Petra, the rock city; I somehow felt protected. Honestly, I think it was your prayers.

After I saw Jesus coming for those who believed in him; I picked up one of their Bibles and read non-stop. Mum, how could I have been such an idiot?

2½ Months later, some of your people came to tell us that it was safe to come out. Ahmed and I went back to Israel. The new government in Jerusalem had put a ban on cutting down trees for biofuel and instead the people needed to burn the artilleries. The ban was to last seven years. I guess it had a dual purpose: the military mess was cleaned up and the forests in Israel had a chance to recover.

From there we continued to the Valley of Megiddo.

The stench was incredible; rotting and decaying bodies. Further in the valley, we could see bloating bodies covered in dried purple blood and mud, in what was once a lake filled with blood. Swarms of vultures, condors, crows, ravens were ripping the rotten flesh from the skeletons.

Two months prior to this horrendous scenery this was a proud battlefield where the troops of all the nations had gathered to fight off the 'alien invasion.'

We talked with two elderly eyewitnesses; so happy that they miraculously survived. They told us:

"We were standing on the hill and looking at the troops. On that fateful day the weather turned overcast, clouds were gathering and the sky darkened when a bright ray of light pierced the firmament. It seemed like the heavens cracked open, and there they were, the aliens. Honestly, we don't know what to call them as they said that they also lived on earth, but now had new bodies.

Anyway, they were shrouded in blinding light; there seemed to be music and singing coming from their direction; their white UFOs bore the resemblance of powerful horse-like creatures.

The soldiers got their orders: 'Keep your place and be ready to fire! -

Space defences ready? – Let's give them hell!... Five... four... three...'

When we heard the countdown, the unbelievable happened; an all shattering, catastrophic rumbling and shaking of the entire earth. We saw walls, bridges and buildings crumbling, and we heard that even mountains were violently thrown down.

It was beyond anything that ever was. We were also thrown, but stayed down and prayed.

It started raining after 3½ year drought during the time of these two people preaching in Jerusalem. It came bucketing down together with lightning, fire and sulphur. If that was not enough, this was followed by a pelting down of hailstones the size of basketballs, weighing 40 to 45 kilos each, as you see.

The earthquake finished and from what we heard, Yeshua and his troops had landed on the Mount of Olives. From what we were told later on by an alien, was that first the A.G.I. android image was destroyed, and then the dictator and this “Elijah” fellow were overpowered and were sent to burn in hell. We were happy for that.

We could see the armies were without a commander and total panic broke out among the soldiers as they were brutally thrown out of rank and frantically scrambled for cover from the hailstones and from the rocket launchers which had fallen over and instead of firing vertically, they were firing horizontally into the troops. There was the remaining part from the army of the east fighting also; it was turmoil; total insanity; the slaughter among the soldiers went completely out of control.

First, they were slugging it out in the rain, mud mixed with blood, then pools of blood and finally the blood-waters rose to chin height, four to five feet deep. About two-thirds of the valley was a blood-filled lake ... Absolute mayhem, total chaos, which went on till there was no survivor left...

Millions of proud soldiers became nothing but heaps of collateral damage. The birds of prey arrived, along with the squealing rats and snickering hyenas.

At home it was no better, neighbour against neighbour.

People were going berserk with hate;

demon possessed, going crazy with violence and religious killing; we heard that the civil war was worldwide, leaving not millions, but billions dead.

After a month and a half, the civil anarchy came to an end. This was only a few weeks ago; it is still fresh in our mind; maybe we survived so we could tell you boys, and you’d write it down for your children.”

Mum, it looked like the bullies, the pig-headed and ‘them which destroy the earth’ had destroyed each other. They said that recently the animals changed as the rats and hyenas unobtrusively withdrew.

The people who hid in the jungles, deserts, and wilderness, away from these crazed killing fields came out. They were blessed because they waited till it was over and so ‘the meek inherit the earth.’

Listening to the eye witnesses and seeing the heaps of corpses being dumped into the mass graves was devastating. I still can’t believe that people would stoop to such insanity to destroy each other.

Neither can I believe that the kings and presidents were so gullible to swallow the lies of this Satan worshipping tyrant by sending their armies and every chipped person to fight off these so-called aliens, still thinking that “the leader” wanted to save the world, even after he initiated the nuclear holocaust. I was thinking of what I read in the Bible, ‘I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease’ ‘I won’t let them pollute my holy name any more...’

Mum, actually by talking about it I am finding PTSD closure in my heart on this. I am still learning about Jesus and memorizing that scripture from the book of Ezekiel, ‘They’ll be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD... they’ll dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.’

Eye-witness account of Armageddon

(Edited from ‘Memoires of Apocalypse Survivors’ pg.133-136 & 75-78 All is based on scriptures; for references. please see the book)

During the last three days of the Marriage-Feast month we visited the stables to get acquainted with our horses. My horse was such an embodiment of strength and muscle power, yet so gentle, and she took a liking to me the minute we saw each other. When I rode her, it was like we were one. She was a hundred times more magnificent than the most outstanding Lipizzaner.

Our instructions were simple; ‘Follow the Master... Don’t take revenge on anyone, as vengeance belongs to the Lord. We will organize our troops in such a way that the musicians will ride in front, just behind the Lord.’

At the end of the first day the Lord appeared and explained that we will not fight; but that the Father himself will take care of the battle. I could see that the Lord was serious and party time was over! “The Father never wants to hear those words again that cut him to the heart, ‘Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani’ and hence prefers to take care of Armageddon himself for which I am very thankful.
