

'Don't you find the truth inconvenient?' - 'Who cares!'

Recently I was invited to teach in a meeting. During the last day certain questions concerning the Bible came up; i.e. How could the Sun stand still upon Gibeon and the Moon in valley of Ajalon? (Josh.10:13) Joshua ordered the sun to stand still, but according to modern science the sun is already standing still, and the earth spins around the sun. The other question was how can the sundial go back ten degrees in Hezekiah's days (2Kings 20:11), as this would mean that suddenly the earth, which spins at the Equator a 1000 miles/hour, would be thrown in reverse. This is an impossibility. They were good questions that I had grappled with myself and so had done research on these subjects.

I explained that we either believe the Bible to be a 100% solid rock of truth, or we accept both the Bible and Modern Science; therefore, the truth must be somewhere in the sandy middle. If we accept what the Bible teaches is 100% truth, then we need to be open to the possibility that the earth is not a globe spinning around the sun and through the universe as theorized by Copernicus. Seeing that he wasn't at all sure about his heliocentric hypothesis, but published his idea on insistence of his student Rheticus.

As he wasn't sure, we ourselves bear the responsibility to find evidence that the world is an actual globe spinning around its axle at 1000 MPH. Although the idea was at first a hypothesis, it is now accepted as a "scientific fact".

Needless to say, this became quite a discussion and I asked people not to believe me but to do their own research. I had done my Google research several years ago and at that time I could find a lot of material which gave information that the world might be flat: a testimony from an airplane-pilot, a military captain explaining that their submarine was not allowed to leave the northern hemisphere and go below the equator, there was the book "100 proofs that the world is not a globe", the studies of Eric Dubay, four emergency plane landings in Alaska that should have landed in Hawaii, and diagrams of how the sun moves around the earth, etc., etc. This week I started googling it again to show how to find the evidence, but it's all covered up, indicating that only an idiot researches this.

Several years ago, I remember searching for proof of Noah's Ark; every time I typed Noah's Ark in the search-bar, no end of gay bars named 'Noah's Ark' popped up. Finally, I realized that I needed to type. 'In research of Noah's Ark' and then I got the proper information. Searching through the net is like going through a garbage or rubbish bin.

Beside some good info, there is broken glass and other sharp poisonous items that can cut you badly, if you get side-tracked.

It is vitally important, before you start researching that you ask the Lord for the gift of discernment to see what is truth. If it confirms your Bible then you know that it could be based in truth. If the article does not confirm what the Bible says, which you can sense pretty much right away, then leave it because it is media hype. Talk about media hype, muse this...

NASA astronauts explain that we have not yet gone through the Van Allen Belt, a high radiation area of 2000⁰ Celsius (access date June 2026). I transcribed parts of the interviews in case this video gets blocked:

"NASA officer, 'As we get further away from Earth we pass through the Van Allen Belt, an area of dangerous radiation... but Orion has protection. Shielding will be put to the test as the vehicle cuts through the waves of radiation. Sensors on board will record radiation levels for scientists to study. We must solve these challenges before we send people through this region of space.'"

"NASA astronaut, 'The plan that NASA has, is to build a heavy lift rocket... it will be able to launch the Orion capsule with humans on board... to destinations beyond Earth's orbit. Right now, we can only fly in earth's orbit that is the farthest we can go, and this new system that we are building is to allow us to go beyond and hopefully take humans into our solar system to explore. So the ~~moon, mars and asteroids~~, there is a lot of destinations that we could go to, and we are building these building block components in order to allow us to do that eventually."

This shows clearly that all rockets and/or spacecrafts have only operated in what is known as the earth's orbit; others have either burned up in the Van Allen Belt, or their travels beyond the earth's orbit are fake films and photoshopped photographs.

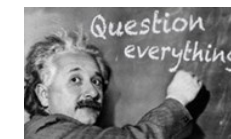

We need to realize that Satan, who pretty much dictates the Media through finances, will leave no stone unturned to "prove God's Word wrong". There is the saying "Follow the money," which means that financial transactions are the most reliable source to discover corruption and the dubious motives behind it.

We are talking about Big Worldwide Deception with 2026 declared budgets of 626 billion U\$ for space agencies producing photos of Mars Rover vehicles. And the 2025 worldwide military spending reached 2887 billion U\$, resulting in many multitudes dead.

Imagine the good that this money could have done.

We are so bombarded with lies, that honestly, we don't care anymore what the truth is all about.

Now listen to what Jesus taught 2000 years ago, during his 40 days on earth, between his resurrection and his ascension departure, as recorded in the Ethiopian Bible.

A razor-sharp explanation of what is fulfilled today.

The first stage is the stage of FORGETTING.

Humanity stops seeking truth, not through dramatic rejection but through slow drift. People stop asking the deep questions; truth becomes inconvenient. Convenience becomes a reason not to look... a quiet fading of the human instinct to go deeper.

Second stage is the age of SPECTACLE.

People become experts in being distracted and strangers to stillness... The process is a force; wisdom is not removed; it's simply outcompeted. Spiritual starvation that does not feel like starvation, because something is always on.

Third is the stage of the FALSE SHEPHERD.

Corrupt leaders arise from within the faith, not outside it. They speak the language of the sacred, while pursuing the reward of the secular.

(Don't you love them... flying around in their private jets?)

The fourth stage is the GREAT SILENCE.

The age of forgetting eroded the habit of seeking. The spectacle age eroded the capacity for stillness. The false shepherd age eroded the trust in the institutions that might have guided people back. By the time the great silence arrives the path back is not blocked, it is invisible. People are not prevented from seeking, they no longer remember there is something to seek.

The final empire: THE CAGE THAT NOBODY SEES.

Jesus says that the final empire is not a nation, not a military power; it is a system, a structure so vast and so subtle that most people will live inside it, without ever realizing they were captives. It is a cage where the doors are never locked, because the prisoner has been convinced that there is no cage. The final empire has discovered something more efficient; it does not silence voices; it drowns them out. It gives dissenters a platform and then fills the platform with so much noise that no single voice can be heard above the flood of publicity. Truth is not censored it is simply rendered inaudible.

(This is exactly what was happening as I explained earlier in my research concerning the Noah's Ark, and other subjects, i.e. flat earth, moon landing; the Big Bang being the worst fantasy, total nonsense based on guesstimates. 'Uh-oh... Don't say that, these are scientific hypotheses confirmed by scientific theories.' Whatever you wish to name it is still not based in facts what science should be. The Big bang is a total fallacy when compared to the scientific formulas and laws as evidence for Creation.)

'The real battle of the final human age is not fought in the heavens or on a battlefield, but inside every personal life.' The Lord foretold how we are numbed spiritually by the next seven seals.

The first is the seal of COMFORT.

It is when someone avoids truth because it feels uncomfortable.

The second is the seal of PRIDE.

When a person becomes so certain that they already understand, they stop listening, stop learning, stop willing to be wrong.

The third is the seal of FEAR.

A life ruled by the need for security where every decision bends towards safety, and truth gets traded for stability. (With newborns, parents are bombed not only with inoculations, but with: i.e. Life, Health, Accident or Disability Insurance, Cancer and even Burial insurance.)

The fourth is the seal of DISTRACTION.

Every moment filled. No quiet moment, no stillness. No space for anything inconvenient to arrive.

The fifth is the seal of FALSE COMMUNITY.

Surrounding yourself only with those who already confirm what you believe. 👍 (Yeah - Group chats) 👍

The sixth is the seal of FALSE MERCY.

Where false mercy becomes an excuse for the individual to never grow or change and take responsibility.

(I was wondering what this False Mercy was? Is it that we excuse ourselves or others by affirming that we have mental health issues? Depending on our maturity we either believe 'External Locus of control' or we accept the 'Internal Locus of Control'. None of us like to be corrected about behaviour, so we defend ourselves with the socially approved shield of 'I also have mental health issues.' As then people will be merciful, knowing that I've problems, and am not mentally capable to accept full responsibility for my behaviour. So, instead of people spelling out the result of my bad choices, they show me "mercy" and don't ruffle my feathers, so they leave me alone to do what I want. Is this the False mercy of the last few decades which the Lord warned us about two millennia ago?)

The seventh is the seal of RELIGION ITSELF.

Which Jesus called the most dangerous of all; when sacred words, rituals and traditions become a masque for a lifeless faith. (The last nail in our coffin.)

Can we still rescue this world's SINKING SHIP?

Sorry to say, our ship keeps springing leaks of corruption under the waterline, with no concern for the poor. Our officers are fighting each other, refusing to read the Captain's compass and are leading us straight into catastrophic nuclear ruin. However, you can leave this sinking ship through the escape hatch, whether you live in a palace or sit on death-row. If you study John's gospel and experience the Lord's forgiveness, you'll never want anything else in life.
