

At 16, I left Thailand, I signed my first Pro-contract in the UK that is where my journey begins as a professional player. Mind you this is still me being a Muslim; I started to earn a lot of money - along with sexual immorality - I was playing in UK, France, Belgium, I played in Israel, Germany, in Qatar, and Greece where I scored a lot of goals.

One day after a game in the UK a journalist walked up to me and wanted to do an interview as I had been in different countries, so people would get to know who I am. We meet two weeks later and he looked me straight in the eyes and he said, "Listen young man I am not a journalist." I was like, 'What?' and I am hearing the voice of my mother telling me "Khalil do not ever sell your soul." This she had told me many times, but I did not really understand, until that day. This is not conspiracy; this is matter of fact. He said, "You are talented, but in this world if you want to be part of 'the Elite', you have to pay the price to enter 'the Elite'." - 'What do I need to do to enter 'the Elite'?' - "Everything costs something; there are different type of ways you can join.

You can either sign with you own blood and you are going to have a specific year that you are going to die. After 20 years you are going to die, and if you don't want to die, you can give your sister or relative to extend the pact." - He said all of this to my face. 'How will I kill? I will go to prison.' He said, "Young man, the hospital, we control, we rule this world, any person that disappears we control. So do not be afraid." - 'How will my sister die, if I give her?' He says, "It will probably be cancer or car-crash; it will depend on the circumstances of her life how disobedient she is to God." - People who are disobedient to God are open for these things. He told me they rule the sports, and the music industry, the movie, the finance and the political industry. This is not a joke. I stayed polite because me being African, I was thinking this guy can kill me. I said, 'Thank you very much for the offer, but I rather die the way I am. I don't want to do any of this.' That is when his energy changed, he got angry and was trying to dominate me, "You will never be the player you want to be. You will never reach the level you want to reach. Every president of clubs, every superstar that you worship are part of it. You can't do without us."

That was always my dream to be a superstar, to make my mother proud. Now with ten years passed I understand what he means that they control. - I think of the verse: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36)

We fast track to Switzerland when playing there I was questioning the Quran. The Quran tells me that Isa is the only one that is pure, and it tells me that Isa is the Word of God. Who is this Isa? I went to one mosque and showed him the verse. But the Quran also tells me that only Allah is sinless. So, the Quran tells me that Isa is God. He told me to stop reading.

One day I prayed and said; 'I was in Thailand, I've seen these people asking me to sell my soul; there are over 3000 religions, but there is one God. We live in a messed-up world, the closest I get is Islam. But Isa, even in Islam you seem to be God. So, Isa if you are God, reveal yourself to me.'

The next day as I finished training, in the streets of Geneva, August 2016, a pastor from England, speaking French, Pastor Anthony Cooper stopped me in the street and he said, "Young man, do you know that Jesus loves you?" It was like his word transferred life in to my heart that died, when my mom died. My question was, 'How can Jesus love someone like me? How can he love me it's not possible, a hypocrite doing all sorts of evil things, sexual immorality, night clubs, etc. How?'

He said, "He simply loves you because this is what the Bible says. He loved you before you even knew him." The pastor was sad because he had lost his job, but it was because God wanted him to meet a young footballer every day after training to preach the gospel. I was like, if Jesus loves me with a love that is so pure; and I have seen with my eyes that 'the Elite' exist, they are the ones ruling governments; I better run behind Jesus because if you don't have Jesus in this world you are cooked.

Therefore, there is no greater knowledge than knowing Jesus. I got baptised and the Lord said, "Khalil, I called you to serve me but you cannot serve me, if your Isaac is still in your heart." I said, 'What is my Isaac?' - "Read the story of Abraham." Abraham was in his tent, but God said look at the sky and see the stars. Our tent is our limited vision, while God showed him his vision. 'My Isaac of course is my football and you want me to give it up?' - "Come and give your Isaac. I will deliver you from your two-year contract."

When I stopped, I got an offer from an Arab country of three times my salary. So, I gave it up and the Lord got me into a job at the NHS for three years. I had to learn to serve, because football, gives you a big ego. I had to learn to change adult No.2 diapers. The Lord said, 'The greatest in my kingdom is the servant. You happily change your son's diapers; will you also be happy to change the diapers of my sons?' So I learned to serve gracefully.

Then after three years covid came, and the Lord saw that I was ready to start my ministry to footballers.

One day, I had a very deep discussion with a footballer, I can't give his name because he is still active. I said 'What did you do?' He said they asked him to sacrifice his five-month-old baby son; the guy of the hospital was also in 'the Elite', so therefore the baby was like he never was born. - We have the blood of Jesus all around us.

The same way they asked him to put the blood of his own child on him, to have fame. But when he goes to bed at night, he is hearing the voice of his baby crying. I told him 'Your solution now is to follow Jesus.' - "Look I have to give up all this. I can't give this up." If he watches this video then he will know that I am talking about him. Face to face he told me they had to sleep in a cemetery for three days; some of them had to have sex with their mother.

Another came up to me after hearing my testimony, he said to me that he went to a certain country and he sacrificed not one or two, but a lot, a lot of children. He has a lot, a lot of money, but he is so unhappy and tried to commit suicide.

Then I think, 'Thank you, thank you, that you saved me from this. Thank you, thank you, thank you.'

I tell them about the rich young ruler. Jesus told him 'Go sell all that you have, give to the poor and follow me.' With me giving up everything of football, I gained so much more. I tell footballers you may win golden balls or even a world cup, but will someone know you in heaven?

So, you who envy these people; don't because you don't know which price they have to pay. There are footballers that have private jets, but they cannot sleep at night. That is why you see them in nightclubs, taking cocaine.

People are not asking questions; i.e.: one footballer, one year he lost his father, next year he lost his mother; now he is a top, top footballer. People think in the flesh with their brain, "Oh, it is coincidence."

They don't see what is happening in the spirit.

The flesh is a prison.

To parents that tell me 'Khalil, with your football contacts, can you help my son to play football?' My first question is, have you asked God carefully if God wants him to be a missionary in the football world? If that is not the case, you are sending him in a spiritual atmosphere that will push him to do things that he cannot control.'

Do you know the price that they will have to pay to stay at the top of 'the Elite'? There is no neutrality.

Once you can give your life to Jesus, that is the only way you can get out. But they will put out whatever they want about you, because now that you want to go with Jesus, they will destroy your name.

They will make all sorts of articles, like they did for some of the people that came out of it. They will put false news in the newspapers, that they have been raping people, but those were not true.

But because they control the media industry, they can put out there whatever they want, because you accepted their deal and now you don't want to continue and you want to go with Jesus, they will destroy your name.

The Shocking Tale of Professional Football Player Khalil Limban

I was born as a Muslim in Ivory Coast. When I grew up all I did was football, football, football; I was sleeping with the football. Every day I would say my five prayers.

We moved to France in 2001, I have a big brother and a younger sister and my mom was a single mom because my father wasn't married to her and she was struggling. Six years later, May 2007, I said good night to my mom and the next morning she was dead on her bed. I was 12, my sister was 9 and my big brother was 16. When I saw her, I said this is it, my life is finished and I contemplated suicide.

We flew back to Ivory Coast to do a Muslim burial for mom. At the funeral I played football to escape the pain of not having my mom; a coach saw me and took a team of 12 Ivorian boys with him to Thailand.

God knew to get me away from Paris as most of my friends there, ended up in prison; selling drugs. In Thailand I was going to the Buddhist temple, but it's all about me, me, me, me. Islam is also not really a religion that can give you peace in your soul.
